

Gender Pay Gap Report

Date of Publication – 27th March 2019

Introduction

The Nightingale Group consists of a privately owned complex care centre, branded as NG Healthcare. We offer the highest level of care and support to a variety of people with progressive needs. Our core principles of safeguarding, quality, dignity and person centre care are central to daily life.

This report contains the Gender Pay Gap information for the Nightingale Group in line with The Equality Act 2010 (Gender Pay Information) Regulations 2017.

As of April 2018 NG Healthcare employed 471 people and we are committed to offering roles on a flexible basis such as part-time working, flexible working and varied shift patterns.

Gender Profile

The gender profile for the Nightingale Group at April 2018 was as follows:

- Female 385
- Male 86
- Total number of employees 471

Below are the six metrics we are required to publish, the Nightingale Group did not pay bonuses during this reporting period.

Mean Gender Pay Gap (hourly rate)

The difference in mean average hourly rate pay between male and female employees is 14.7%. The difference relates to the highest paying role being held by a male employee.

Median Gender Pay Gap (hourly rate)

The difference in median (middle) hourly pay between male and female full pay employees is 0%

Mean Bonus Pay Gap

Not Applicable

Median Bonus Pay Gap

Not Applicable

Proportion of Men and Women who receive bonus

Not Applicable.

The Proportion of Men and Women according to quartile pay bands:

The data identifies a predominately female workforce which is reflective of the care sector, where 82% of workers are female (Skills for Care 2017).

Pay Bandings

The pay for each role within the Nightingale Group is set for each role, other than specialist and managerial, therefore the same pay rate is paid to employees irrelevant of gender. For managerial and specialist roles bench marking exercises are conducted to ensure salaries are attached to roles and not gender specific.

Nightingale Group's commitment to Equality and Diversity

Nightingale Group's approach to employee recruitment is designed to be both an effective method of engaging skilled and committed people whilst ensuring that no job applicant receives less favourable treatment. Recruitment and internal progression is based on an individual's performance, ability and skill to meet the requirements of the role and the wider business.

The Nightingale Group is an equal opportunities employer embracing diversity in all areas of activity.

Statement of Accuracy

As Director of Clinical Services of the Nightingale Group, I hereby confirm that the above report is accurate to the best of my information, knowledge and belief.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Phil Lloyd', with a horizontal line underneath it.

Phil Lloyd
Director of Clinical Services
Nightingale Group Ltd